Australian National Judo Titles

Lang Park had a massive contribution at the National Titles held on the Queen's Birthday long weekend here in Brisbane.

Apart from the athletes competing at the Titles (that was the easy bit!), we set up the mats, packed up the mats, worked on the Tables, did some marshalling, and the list goes on. Thanks so much to all for showing what we are made of here at Lang Park Judo Club.

Aya Topp, Shinki, Adam and Andrew Kiyuna, Oliver Baumeister, Dominic Orth, Gareth Wogan, Daniel Wang, Juan Sanchez, Heima Miyake-Dalrymple, Myles McKenzie and a few of the folks who call us their second home did good (yes I know that is bad English).

Caitlin offered support and advice while not buried in books being studious (mmmmm)

I think everybody learnt something from the weekend. I certainly did. Great to see the character of the group we have at our club on display at the biggest Australian Nationals ever. See attached piccies and Website Gallery.

PCYC Membership and Training fees

Everyone who trains at the club must be a member of the Lang Park PCYC and pay to train.

While our numbers have been good lately, the number of people sneaking in without paying is disappointing.

We do not want to embarrass anyone publicly, so please do the right thing.

NSW International Open Aug 21-22

Michel has booked the Bus and is getting some accommodation prices. As soon as is done we will get a rough figure to you so you can budget. As this is an Open event, minimum experience and grade requirements will effect who can participate. All Squad members are expected to represent, if we have room for others we will then let you know.

Gradings

We will concentrate on meeting the criteria for the Grading Syllabus over the next few sessions so that players eligible to grade can do so. Attendance is a must for those wishing to be promoted.

See you on the mat. Rob Close.

Aya Topp encouraging boys to behave badly.....again!

Adam thought for a moment he was a Kiwi.....wrong Island pal!

Mr Wogan always prefers to be photographed from his "good" side.....right!
